Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On May 28, 2002, Southwest Gas Corporation (Company), a California corporation, dismissed Arthur Andersen LLP as its independent auditor. The decision to dismiss Arthur Andersen was recommended by the Company's Audit Committee and approved by its Board of Directors.

Arthur Andersen's report on the financial statements of the Company for each of the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 31, 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 31, 2001, and the interim period between December 31, 2001 and May 28, 2002, there were no disagreements between the Company and Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Arthur Andersen, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its report. During the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 31, 2001, and the interim period between December 31, 2001 and May 28, 2002, there were no reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission). A letter from Arthur Andersen is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to this Report.

The Company has engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as its new independent auditor, effective May 28, 2002. During the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 31, 2001, and the interim period between December 31, 2001 and May 28, 2002, neither the Company nor anyone on its behalf consulted with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP regarding (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, (ii) the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements or (iii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as described above) or a reportable event.
